

For Immediate Release

Paul Maffa Joins Skipping Stone

BOSTON, MA, April 12, 2010: Paul Maffa has joined Skipping Stone's in a business development and consulting role focused in the company's natural gas practice area. He will also be responsible for new client development for the company's subsidiary Capacity Center, an interstate gas pipeline real time information system.

Paul brings 25 years of natural gas experience, in sales, purchases, market research, transportation optimization, pipeline capacity management and asset origination. His professional background includes leading natural gas companies, such as, Integry Energy, BP Energy, US Generating and Citizens Gas Supply.

"I have been following Paul's successful career and have always valued his deep understanding of the natural gas markets and admire his ability to help clients identify market opportunities and solutions that fit them best. This is exactly the skills we have been seeking and are very pleased to have him as a member of the team," said Greg Lander, Skipping Stone President.

In his decision to join Skipping Stone, Paul Maffa highlighted key areas such as "I liked the opportunity to work with an experienced team of energy professionals and believed that Capacity Centers real time capacity market data could really enhance natural gas clients' portfolio management in a positive way."

About Skipping Stone:

Skipping Stone is an energy strategy and market consulting firm, established in 1996 with a mission to serve clients in the ever changing energy marketplace by being a different kind of consulting company. The difference: we provide services by utilizing only professionals that have direct experience in the energy industry. This simple mission and our service delivery model have resulted in numerous successful engagements for over 200 clients worldwide. With offices in Boston, Los Angeles and Houston, the company focuses on natural gas & power markets, renewables, demand response, energy technologies and sustainability.

For more information visit www.skippingstone.com

Press Contact:

Jennifer Hammond
jhammond@skippingstone.com
714-895-0800